 I need GlobalHealth Lab/Action Learning team's help with the following open question on lodging:

For my "Sloan portfolio" I plan to work with my teammate _____ on

- Photo journal of 12 photographs, with extensive captions (150 words each), meeting technical criteria (e.g. for dpi) and permission to share from subjects
- we have a decent still camera we need a still camera
 - we need a mini tripod
 - we have access to basic photo editing software
- Video that presents the need, the project, the solution, the host, and the setting
- we have a decent video camera (image stabilization; good microphone)
 - we need a video camera
 - we need an MP3 recorder
 - we need a mini tripod
 - we need access to video editing software
- I originally said photo journal, but would consider video
- Blog journal of 5-7 posts that tell a story of your WORK over the course of your project (each blog post needs a photo and will be subject to editing feedback prior to submission)
- Standalone management module that develops something you did into a useful downloadable suitable for others to use (e.g., a how to guide; or a checklist with detailed explanations)
- I originally said blog journal, but would consider the management module
- Initial draft of a case
- I originally said blog journal, but would consider the case
